The campaign

Our nation India is one of the worst affected country among the world nations when it comes in the scenario of ragging. Almost 70-80% of the all the universities in India is worsely affected by the demon. It is a known fact that the concept was introduced by the British for the purpose of icebreaking among the military officers of British India during the preindependence. However, it becomes a nightmare among them as well as the places where they implemented it. Eventhough ragging has been curbed by the Europeans by law , it still persists in its worst form.

The India Government has implemented certain laws for the beneficial of the university students to curb down the demon called Ragging. The antiragging was one which is implemented among the continuing students of the university before starting a new academic year. The campaign intends to prevent ragging and to promote a sense of security among the students inside the campus.

The aspects discussed in the program

In the campaign we have briefed the following concepts:-

- Punishments
- Acts and laws
